A settlement has been reached in a class action antitrust lawsuit filed on behalf of Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs with Defendants Tyson Foods, Inc., Tyson Fresh Meats, Inc., Tyson Prepared Foods, Inc. and the Hillshire Brands Company (“Tyson” or “Settling Defendant”). This Court-ordered notice may affect your rights. Please review and follow the instructions carefully.

The United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois authorized this notice. Before any money is paid, the Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the Settlement.

WHO IS INCLUDED?

For settlement purposes, members of the Settlement Class are defined as all persons who purchased any Turkey products directly from any of the Defendants or any coconspirator, or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates for use or delivery in the United States from at least as early as January 1, 2010 until January 1, 2017. Specifically excluded from the Settlement Class are the Defendants; the officers, directors or employees of any Defendant; any entity in which any Defendant has a controlling interest; and any affiliate, legal representative, heir or assign of any Defendant. Also excluded from the Settlement Class are any federal, state, or local governmental entities,

In addition to Tyson, the Defendants in this lawsuit for purposes of the Settlement Agreement include Butterball, LLC, Cargill, Inc., Cargill Meat Solutions Corporation, Cooper Farms, Inc., Farbest Foods, Inc., Foster Farms LLC, Foster Poultry Farms, Hormel Foods Corporation, House of Raeford Farms, Inc., Perdue Farms, Inc., and Perdue Foods LLC, and Agri Stats, Inc.

If you are not sure you are included, you can get more information, including a detailed notice, at www.TurkeyLitigation.com or by calling toll-free 1-877-777-9637.

WHAT IS THIS LAWSUIT ABOUT?

Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs allege that Defendants and their co-conspirators conspired and combined to fix, raise, maintain, and stabilize the price of Turkey, beginning at least as early as January 1, 2010, with the intent and expected result of increasing prices of Turkey in the United States, in violation of federal antitrust laws. Tyson denies it did anything wrong. The Court did not decide which side was right, but both sides agreed to the Settlement Agreement to resolve the case and get benefits to the Class. The case is still proceeding on behalf of the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs against other Defendants who may be subject to separate settlements, judgments, or class certification orders. For purposes of this case, the terms “Turkey” and “Turkey Products” means turkey meat, which may be sold in a variety of forms, including fresh or frozen, ground or parts, and raw or cooked. “Turkey” includes, but is not limited to: breasts, wings, drums, legs, thighs, tenderloins, necks, tails, gizzards, feet, trim, tenders, mechanically separated turkey (“MST”), ground turkey, and further processed and value added turkey products. Turkey includes, but is not limited to, products containing turkey such as lunch meat, deli meat, sausage, franks, bacon, and corn dogs.

WHAT DOES THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Tyson will pay $4,625,000 to resolve all Settlement Class claims against it in this litigation against Tyson. In addition to this monetary benefit, Tyson has also agreed to provide specified cooperation in the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs’ continued prosecution of the litigation. Class Counsel are not seeking to recover attorneys’ fees and do not plan for distribution of settlement proceeds to the Class Members at this time, but may do so at a future date subject to further notice. At least 14 days before the deadline to file an Exclusion Request regarding this Settlement, Plaintiffs and Co-Lead Counsel will file a motion seeking no more than $1 million in current and ongoing litigation expenses. A copy of that motion for litigation expenses will be available on the Settlement Website.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS?

You do not need to take any action to remain a member of the Settlement Class and be bound by the Settlement Agreement. As a Settlement Class member, you may be able to participate in (or exclude yourself from) any future settlement or judgment obtained by Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs against other Defendants in the case. If you don't want to be legally bound by the Settlement Agreement, you must exclude yourself by November 22, 2021, or you won't be able to sue or continue to sue Tyson for the Released Claims (as defined in the Settlement Agreement). If you exclude yourself, you can't get money from the Settlement. If you don't exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you may still object to the Settlement Agreement by November 22, 2021. The detailed notice explains how to exclude yourself or object. Details may also be found on the FAQs page of the settlement website. The Court will hold a hearing in this case (Olean Wholesale Grocery Cooperative, Inc., et al., v. Agri Stats, Inc., et al., N.D. Ill. Case No. 1:19-cv-08318) on January 6, 2022, at 9:00 a.m. to consider whether to approve the Settlement Agreement. You may ask to speak at the hearing, but you don't have to.
